

Terms and Conditions of “Win Brompton Makeover by Bikmo”

The following terms of conditions apply to the online competition “Win Brompton Makeover by Bikmo” further referred to as “competition”.

1. Approval of eligibility requirements

With dispatching the form of participation every participant agrees specifically and mandatorily to the following terms of condition.

2. Participation authorization

Only people who are contractually capable and at least at the age of 18 are legitimated to participate, underage must obtain parental consent or consent of legal guardian. Excluded are employees, consultants or other staff being on the payroll of Bikmo as well as their first and second-degree relatives and their life partners living in cohabitation. Participants must be legal residents of EU. The proposed design must be an original created by the participant.

3. Rules of the online competition

The competition takes place from August 5th 2019, up to, and including, the August 25th 2019 till 11:59 pm CET. Under all participants, one winner will be picked by Brompton. One submission per person allowed.

4. Prize and winner’s notification

The winner of the prize will be chosen by Brompton. The winner will be informed via email. The winner has to confirm the notification within two days including all necessary personal information. Otherwise, Bikmo is authorized to select another winner.

The prize includes the following:

- Bikmo with help of professional designer and paint shop will :
 - A. paint the winners own Brompton bicycle
 - B. paint one of Bikmo courtesy BromptonsThe winner will determine the variation of the prize.

The legal process is excluded. Cash payment as well prize exchange is not possible. Selected products must be in stock and available at Bikmo’s retail partner of choice. Products which are currently out of stock are excluded.

5. Responsibilities

Bikmo endeavours to publish correct information on the internet. Liability for incorrect statements or technical mistakes concerning the winner’s choice of this competition not given by Bikmo. Bikmo are not liable for possible damages, which could possibly happen because of the involved parties.

6. Publication of the winner

The participants agree with their participation free of charge and irrevocable to the following terms: of Bikmo is allowed to use the participant's name and photo for spot announcements and editorial issues. Personal data is only used within the scope of the competition and will not be given to a third person or to promotion partners.

7. Exclusion of participation

When it comes to the violation of the eligibility requirements Bikmo reserves its right to exclude participants from this competition. Furthermore, Bikmo reserves its right to exclude those participants who try to use illegal additives or to get advantages by using manipulative methods or due to plagiarism. This is the case if using automatic scripts, hacker tools, Trojans or other viruses. Furthermore, not truthfully personal data or using "fake-profiles" leads to exclusion. In such cases, where required, the prize can be cancelled by Bikmo.

8. Premature termination

Bikmo is entitled to cancel the competition ahead of schedule if unpredictable, not susceptible incidents happen which could possibly hinder the originally planned execution. This includes the not permitted intervention of third persons, technical problems concerning hard- or software and other incidents which Bikmo is not in control of. This also concerns encroachments which are directly linked to the realization of the competition, for example, the manipulative usage of several e-mail addresses or the violation of personal data from other participants.

9. Legal Process

The legal process for the realization of this competition as well as the winner's choice is excluded.

Chester, August 2019 Any questions concerning the eligibility requirements? Please contact hello@bikmo.com